The country’s political discourse as we all prepare for a general election

“We are inviting everyone who is willing to dedicate the next few weeks as a time not just to think about the big questions but to pray for our nation and our world... It is our prayer that, even in the heat of the debate, we will treat each other with respect and kindness... And we give thanks for the dedication of all who stand for public office in service of our communities – often at great personal cost - and those who support the process.”

Archbishops Justin and Stephen

Sign up here for Pray Your Part, daily reflections from the Church of England as we approach the general election.

We continue to use the team prayers for this period of vacancy which can be downloaded here. One of these is a prayer for this time of transition:

Father God,

in this time of transition,

help us to see Your presence in our communities and to listen to Your will for the way ahead.

May our lips speak Your words, and our hands do Your work as we wait for your kingdom to come.

As we look for the Holy Spirit’s leading in the appointment of a new team rector,

we pray for guidance, inspiration and grace.

We pray all this in the name of Jesus Christ,

for the sake of His Kingdom,

and in sure and certain hope. Amen
